Q&A WITH PGA JR. LEAGUE PLAYER KENNEDY WHITE

Registration is open for the 2019 PGA Jr. League season! Find your team today and sign up online at PGAJrLeague.com. In this month's Front 9, we're featuring a Q&A with Kennedy White, a 9-year-old PGA Jr. League player from Chicago who loves the game and has been playing since the age of five.

Black Girls Golf: How did you get started in PGA Jr. League?

Kennedy White: I started with The First Tee of Greater Chicago at Glenwoodie Golf Club, but this was my first year (2018) doing PGA Jr. League. I really liked it, so I'm hoping I can do it again!

BGG: Why did you like PGA Jr. League?

KW: We got to compete and play on course. It was fun-competitive, not competitive-competitive.

BGG: Would you recommend PGA Jr. League to other girls and boys?

KW: Yes! It's a really fun experience. You get to learn new things. I feel like everyone will really like it, not just because of the sport, but because of the people on your team.

BGG: What's your favorite memory from the PGA Jr. League season?

KW: We got to go to Kemper Lakes for the KPMG Women's PGA Championship, where we met the 2017 Champion, Danielle Kang. It was so cool to see!

BGG: What do you look forward to the most about PGA Jr. League?

KW: Meeting new people and playing matches with them.

BGG: What would you tell other girls who might be afraid to play on a team?

KW: Don't be afraid of what others might think. Don't let anything or anyone stop you from doing what you love.

BGG: How does your team celebrate a great shot?

KW: We clap and say, "Great shot!" You want to encourage them.

BGG: Does your team have a cheer or a special hand shake?

KW: No, but I would like to have one!

Spending time

For some of you Spring Break is here. How will you spend your time?

Time is valuable. Once it's gone you can't get it back. Be mindful HOW you spend your time.

Have you ever say scrolling through IG and not realized how much time has passed? It's easy to spend time in the wrong way.

You're an athlete, it's important to spend your time improving your skills and getting your body and mind ready for competition.

Enjoy your Spring break, but don't forget to take some time to practice your craft. Your game will thank you for it.

Attending BGG Clemson Summer Scholars gives you a head start on that process. Plus, we think you'll love it there. #GOTIGERS

GOLF HELPS BUILD BUILD GENUINE RELATIONSHIPS

When I was your age golf wasn't even on my radar. I ran track. I didn't even know anyone who played golf.

When I left college and started working, I noticed that all the men in my office played golf. There were very few women in my office. None of us were ever invited to play with the guys.

I grew tired of not getting invited to play so I bought a set of clubs and took lessons. The next time I heard the guys talking about golf, I invited myself.

My first time out on the course with the guys was TERRIBLE, but I stuck with it. I didn't like playing with the guys all the time, but there weren't any women in my circle of friends who played.

I started BGG so I could have other women to play golf with. I've met some of the best people on the golf course and have used golf to create great friendships. #thisiswhyiplay

We want to know why you play. Follow Black Girls Golf on Instagram. Post a pic and use the hashtag #thisiswhyiplay. You can also write a 200 word story about why you play and we'll print it in the next newsletter.
